CUNY undergraduate programs of study lead to one of two broad categories of degrees: the associate's or the bachelor's (baccalaureate). Generally, an associate's degree requires approximately 60 college credits and a bachelor's degree requires 120. The Bachelor's degree is the formal name for a four year college degree.

As you work through this online application, you will notice that it has a number of sections. You will be asked to click on the "SAVE and CONTINUE" button after completing each section in order to save that section. If you fail to answer a question or leave required information blank, you'll receive a reminder message prompting you to provide all necessary information. You will also see a hand icon that points to the sections that must be completed. Once you complete all relevant information, and click on all the "SAVE and CONTINUE" buttons you will be able to finalize your online application to The City University of New York. At any time you may leave the application and return. The information that you have already entered will be saved. The navigation bar across the top of the application allows you to return to any section prior to clicking the "FINALIZE" button. After you click the "FINALIZE" button you will no longer be able to revise your application.

[Print Application Summary Package]

In order to complete your application, we require an official copy of your high school transcript or GED scores.

If you have received a New York State GED diploma, you should forward a copy of the score report and diploma to UAPC. If you do not have a copy, you may obtain one from the New York State Education Department High School Equivalency Testing program, P.O. Box 7348, Albany, NY 12224-0348. If you have received your GED diploma elsewhere, contact the appropriate State Education Department.

SAT or ACT scores are required for admission into the CUNY Honors College.

To request SAT/ACT scores, it is only necessary to use the institutional code number 2950. You do not need both the institutional CUNY code number and a specific CUNY college code number.
